HOA CORNER

Pool Safety/Drowning Prevention

Make yourself aware of the action steps you can follow for safeguarding (your) children in and around the water. Children are curious, and their inability to recognize danger can place them at a high risk. Adults must be responsible for establishing and communicating supervision duties for their children.

SUPERVISION

- Never assume someone else is watching a child. Have an adult assigned to keep visual contact of a child at all times when at the pool.
- Do not leave a child alone near a pool, pond, bathtub, toilet, or any water in which a child's mouth and nose can be submersed.
- Don't rely on swimming lessons, life preservers, or any other water device to make a child safe in the water.
- Look near the water first if a child is missing.

- Communicate well the pool safety measures with your babysitter and train him/her in CPR.

PREPARATION

- As an adult, preparedness is key in child safety. Learn how to swim if you do not know already. Also, it will be helpful to learn proper rescue techniques as well as CPR.
- Have a phone near the pool area in the event 9-1-1 must be called for an emergency. While talking on the phone, stay with the children.
- Be aware that children can drown during very short breaks in visual contact.

Remember, drowning can often be a silent event. Children under the age of five don't understand the dangers of falling into water and likely will not splash or cry out/yell for help.

PARTNERS IN BUILDING OPENS MAJESTIC MODEL IN RIVERSTONE

Partners in Building has opened a one-of-a-kind model home in The Enclave at Riverstone, a showcase design with Mediterranean influences such as a domed roof and Arabic-style arches.

The 6,242-square-foot model, at 54 Enclave Manor Drive, features five bedrooms, five bathrooms and two half baths. A large courtyard and covered porch greets guests and is one of three outdoor spaces. Double doors from the porch lead to a two-story circular foyer graced with a dual staircase. A hallway leads to one of two master suites, one of which is situated away from the main house and accessed through the courtyard. An expansive kitchen island is a focal point in the open-concept living area, and the nearby formal dining and living rooms add to the home's entertainment space.

Upstairs are three bedrooms—each with a walk-in closet—a media room and game room that opens to a large balcony.

Buyer response in The Enclave at Riverstone has been enthusiastic, with nearly half of the neighborhood's homes sold before any models opened. Partners in Building offers designs ranging from 3,750 to 8,500 square feet with prices from $1 million to $2 million. Also building in The Enclave at Riverstone is Fedrick, Harris Estate Homes, which has home designs ranging from 3,591 to 6,675 square feet that are base priced from near $1 million to $1.3 million. The builder has a Venetian-inspired model home underway that should open late August.

Darling Homes will soon open Riverstone's newest model home a luxurious patio home design in the neighborhood of Whisper Rock.

The model, at 4931 Summer Manor Lane, will showcase the one- and two-story floor plans available in Whisper Rock. The homes will feature gourmet kitchens, open living and entertainment spaces, roomy master suites and covered front porches. Options include game rooms, media rooms, an
