NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

HOA Corner

Wild Hogs

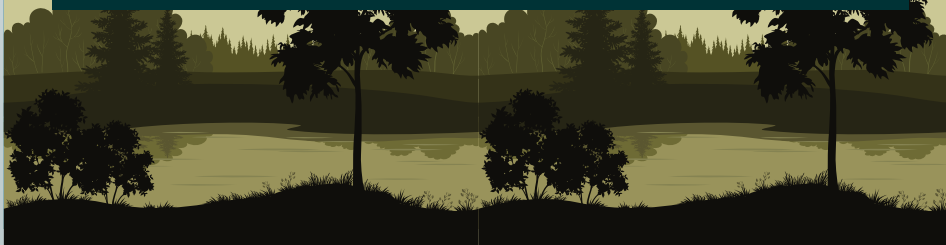

Many residents have noticed that their lawns or shrub beds appear to be uprooted in the morning as a result of wild (feral) hogs in the area. The hogs are looking for food as they are omnivores and consume both plant and animal matter. Owners can put down a treatment that prevents grub worms. This may help deter the hogs from digging in their yard. There are companies who provide grub worm treatment services. Check out lawnserviceadvisor.com to find local lawn maintenance companies. Additionally, products like Bayer Advanced Grub Control, Milky Spore, and Scotts GrubEx can be found at local home improvement stores. You will need to not only treat your lawn but your shrub and flower beds as well.

The hogs have been a growing issue in Fort Bend County for some time now and unfortunately will continue to be as they breed several times a year. Residents have expressed concerns over what measures the homeowners association is taking to address the matter. As specified in the Notice to Homebuyers Agreement, the Riverstone HOA is not responsible for the nuisance of these wild hogs as the HOA does not manage wildlife affairs.

The Association has been informed that the hogs are in their natural habitat. Since the Brazos River runs through Fort Bend County which includes a lot of undeveloped areas adjacent to the river such as portions of Riverstone, Sienna, The George Ranch, Brazos Bend State Park and other large areas that are still rural in nature, a natural habitat for the hogs is created that obviously covers tens of thousands of acres that are unregulated and available for the hogs to roam across. As development moves forward, hogs and other wildlife are being driven from their natural habitat.

Residents are discouraged from trapping the hogs as there is an element of danger associated with any wild animal. Neither the Game Warden nor Animal Control will collect trapped hogs. This is an unfortunate situation, but the only way to eliminate them from our neighborhoods is to eliminate what they are looking for, food i.e., Grub Worms.

Your FirstService management team strives to provide the best possible service. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at 713-332-4750, or you can visit our office at The Club at Riverstone, 18353 University Blvd., Sugar Land, TX 77479. We thank you in advance for your support!

How to Rent The Club at Riverstone Facilities

Residents may rent one room, or all of the Club, based upon availability. It is important to note that The Club at Riverstone serves as the primary location for Riverstone Foundation sponsored community events, leisure classes, committee meetings, social club meetings, and resident rentals. To check space availability and request a specific date/time for your private event please follow the steps below:

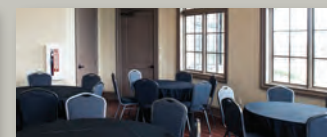

1. Login into your profile on the Resident Intranet and click on the link called "Resident Rentals".
2. Review the "Rooms & Fees" document and "Rental Policy" document found online in the rental information and forms section. These documents will provide you with all the policies, guidelines, and costs related to renting a space at The Club at Riverstone.
3. Decide which date/time and spaces you would like to request. Please make sure when deciding a date and time that you are within the room availability stated in the "Rental Policy" document. It is also important to note that the minimum rental time frame for the Live Oak Ballroom and Elm Room is three hours.
4. Request your desired space, date, and time by clicking the button on the "Resident Rentals" online page. (Please note that once you complete the request you will receive a confirmation email. It will clearly state that you have only requested that rental and that the request still needs to be confirmed by the event team.) Alternatively, download the necessary forms (or pick them up at The Club at Riverstone), fill out the "Rental Application & Agreement", and drop them off at The Club at Riverstone during business hours.
5. At this point, please allow the event team a maximum of ten business days to confirm the availability of your requested space, date, and times. They will contact you within that time frame to set up an appointment at The Club at Riverstone.
6. At the appointment, they will review the "Rental Policy" document with you, have you complete the "Rental Application & Agreement", and collect your full payment (checks and credit cards accepted). They will also discuss with you the recommended layouts for the amount of people you are having and note your specific event needs.
7. Once all the appropriate paperwork has been submitted, you will have completed the reservation process! Now it is time to focus on your other event needs. Feel free to ask the event team questions and for referrals to vendors you may need (such as a linen company, caterer, DJ, band, etc.).

If you are in need of more information or have any questions, please contact Tiffany Malone using the information above or visit us at The Club at Riverstone (located at 18353 University Blvd, Sugar Land, TX 77479).

Fitness Tip of the Month

Step off the Scale

The most harmful misconception about getting in shape is that you need to weigh less. For many people, the number on the scale shouldn't matter. It isn't what you weigh, the ratio of muscle to fat is far more important that the scale can reveal. Judge the progress you make by seeing how your clothes are starting to feel better.

Camping

More than 42 million Americans turn to the wilderness seeking escape from the stress of everyday life by going camping. They trade in the comforts of their home, for nights under the stars. But, long before it was one of America's beloved pastimes, camping was a way of life. It was a way to survive harsh weather conditions for many groups of people while traveling cross country. This month's Lifestyle Merit Program is featuring camping and the kids will learn how to pitch a tent for their future trips!

Keep an eye out for an email with further event details and information! This event is part of the Lifestyle Merit Program and is only open for those registered participants.

OCTOBER LIFESTYLE RECAP

Riverstone's Fall Garage Sale was a Success!

It was a beautiful day to have a garage sale in Riverstone. People from all over Fort Bend County attended the sale and left with new treasures! And with 92 booths filled with hidden treasures, that was no surprise. Both vendors and attendees also had a chance to enjoy complimentary coffee and donuts that were provided by the Riverstone Foundation. The perfect treat for a morning of shopping! Be on the lookout for the next Riverstone Garage Sale coming up in the spring.

Piada Italian Riverstone VIP Tasting Night

Riverstone residents were given a sneak peek of one of the area's newest restaurants last month, Piada Italian Street Food! Residents received one free entrée and samples of delectable sides including cannoli chips, orzo crunch, piada garlic dough and much more. From word of mouth (no pun intended), the chicken fritte piada entrée was de-li-cious. Thanks Piada Sugar Land for a great event for our residents! Make sure you stop by Piada Italian Street Food sometime soon, to relish in the Italian experience for yourself.

Hundreds of residents attended this year's Trail of Treats!

This year's Trail of Treats featured over 10 trail stops being facilitated by local community businesses. Kids enjoyed lots of candy, toys, cookies, shaved ice, and more!! They also had an opportunity to decorate their very own miniature pumpkin, thanks to the Sienna Market HEB. Let's not forget those face painters and balloon twisters who assisted in completing everyone's disguise. Thank you to all who attended!!!
